

Terrace Hill Exterior Renovation

Des Moines, IA

Summary;

2000; Exterior restoration of Terrace Hill Governor's Mansion.

Special Features:

Winner of the 2002 'Best Preserved' Award by the Iowa Historic Preservation Alliance for outstanding achievement in historical preservation. "Multi-colored slate roofs, towers, and an asymmetrical plan help make it one of the most lavish Second Empire-style houses in the country."

Work included repair and replacement of slate shingle roof, wood trim restoration, and painting. All work was performed while building was in full use by its occupants.
